1942 US Para Trousers reinforced knees

I just ordered another pair of these, used first pair for hunting, farm work, still good, but getting a bit thin. Bought first pair, 8 years ago, great value general purpose trousers.

See my comment of oktober 15th: it's difficult to recalculate from U.S. measures into European. Trousers; although waist size is correct they are much too big (see also comments of August 22nd); had to redo all (5) main seams of the trousers and still can only wear them with suspenders. Jacket is great and shirt too.

Nice Boots!

I have been wearing these for a little while now. I like the nice, soft leather; it easily takes a spit shine and the boots look sharp. They tend to run slightly large and the inside of the buckles need to be smoothed so they don't chew up the leather strap. A good looking boot that is hard to find at double the price.

Good

A good repro of the issue KD shirt. Only flaws are very minor, such as buttons are a little too red. Could be improved by adding a little extra length in the body of the shirt for the taller blokes. I'm 6' and the side seams for the shirt only just tuck into the trousers (which are belted at my waist).

Snug but losing some definition

Snug fit but serviceable. When compared to the cap from 10 years ago from WPG, it has lost some refinement, which does bring it closer to the WW2 originals, but it has also lost some detail. The head of the bird on the shield is now an amorphous mess compared to the old version.

A great job on detail (omitting as a cretic point, elastic collar band to pull collar up and to keep it erect) and no pockets super! Other positive points, is lack of acrylic spray and shorter fleece adds to phenomenal mobility. Some might thing a shorter fleece is less elegant, but it suits this jacket perfectly .

Very Pleased!

Initially had some trouble with paying for order, but once that was straightened out I had my order in two days! I can't get mail from the east coast that fast. The Patton holster set is superb, once I get the leather colored and finished, it will be perfect. Thanks, guys. Can't wait to see what I find there next.

Very fast delivery, great experience

Overall the quality was outstanding. Only issue I had was with the metal closure on the retainer strap on the front of the case, it was very loose, but with some pliers I crimped it back in place. I have received many compliments as this is a hard item to find in serviceable condition. Great item for reenactments.
