The fit is a little lose which causes chafing and blisters. I know these need to be made to fit everyone but if the fit was similar to the m1904s you have. This problem wouldn’t be so relevant.

The shipping box was smaller than the cap and caused deformation of product, so poor on that respect, but price I love the quality of the Barracks Cover and the materials used. The downside was that the shipping box was smaller than the size of the cap, and that put a deformation bend in the leather brim of the cap. !
