Haversack sling for use with either original or replica haversacks
WPG has offered an item that has been hard to find and much needed. I have both original and repro. haversacks, but have not had a proper sling other than one very aged original, which I don't wish to use.

A little disappointed by this, looks good but the material is paper-thin. No idea if the WWII were made of the same cloth but I would think you will end up with holes if you do use it. Ok for the price.

Name: Gray - Location: US - Date: 13-Apr-22 Rating: * * * * *

Good product

I received the 1941 shelter half and repro USMC depot bayonet scabbard. They are both very well made. The only complaint I have about the scabbard is, the leather tip is sewn on about 1/2 an inch too far down. This is made of excellent quality leather. The hooks are a little thin compared to originals, but they look correct when the scabbard is complete. Nicely smoothed leather edges is a nice touch missing from most other replicas.

Finally!
Seems that WPG is the best place for me to find reproductions that no one else makes. Yet again they don’t disappoint! I bought 2 shelter halves to do a complete tent and I am very satisfied. Each half came with 4 grommets.

I bought the smallest WPG had in this shirt (size 38). It's a bit big on me, I usually wear 38, but is good quality. I've never seen an original, but looks like the shirt from that era.
